Cheshire East Council Swim Free Application

Terms & Conditions of Swim Free

1. Free swimming is available to customers aged 16 and under and those aged 60 and over. Please bring suitable proof of age to the facility when you apply.
2. The scheme is only offered to the named holder of the Swim Free card, the card is not transferrable.
3. You will need to bring your Swim Free card with you on each visit to access swimming free of charge. Those attending without the card will be charged the normal rate for that activity.
4. Cheshire East Council must be informed of any change of details to the named card holder.
5. The scheme is available at all pools within Cheshire East Council however a separate application may be required for facilities within each of the former district areas of Congleton, Crewe & Nantwich and Macclesfield.
6. The scheme is available during public swimming sessions as advertised at the swimming pools. Free swimming is not available during instructor-led sessions and private hire bookings. For further details of included sessions visit www.cheshireeast.gov.uk
7. Admissions policies for those under 8 years of age apply at all Cheshire East Council swimming pools. These policies may vary according to local conditions at the pool. Please check with the individual facility or at www.cheshireeast.gov.uk before your visit.
8. Cheshire East Council reserves the right to withdraw or amend any of the above conditions at any time without notice.
9. Please keep your card safe as a £5 administration fee will be charged for any future replacement.
10. For security purposes, your photograph may be taken when your card is issued in order to identify you as the cardholder on subsequent visits.
